- Disability-Physical or mental health or related conditions
- Gender reassignment
- Marital or civil partnership status
- Race, ethnic origin or nationality
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

We strive to achieve a membership that reflects the composition of the community we serve.

To enable attendance at meetings and group activities, members with disabilities and those who are frail or vulnerable may, wherever possible, be accompanied by a non-member.

Where members or prospective members have specific needs, Charnwood u3a will strive to make all reasonable adjustments in order to accommodate these needs. Where necessary, the Committee will seek guidance and additional support from the Third Age Trust National Office.

If Charnwood u3a members, group leaders or Committee members become aware of any discriminatory practice or harassment, these will be addressed as stipulated in the Charnwood u3a Complaints Procedures

Practical procedures identified to ensure the success of this policy will be implemented, monitored and reviewed annually by the Committee.

*Note: These protected characteristics conform to those in the Equality Act, 2010, apart from the final characteristic, added because of its particular relevance to the u3a.

Definitions

Equality is about ensuring that every individual has an equal opportunity to make the most of their lives and talents, and believing that no one should have poorer life chances because of where, when or whom they were born, or because of other characteristics. Promoting equality is about behaving in a way that tackles inequalities, aiming to ensure that all members are treated fairly, and do not experience discrimination.

Promoting diversity is about recognising that everyone is different and creating an environment that values members and ensuring that the U3A Movement is as accessible as possible to different groups within the community.

Inclusion is about positively striving to meet the needs of different people and taking practical steps to ensure members feel respected.

Direct Discrimination is when a person is treated less favourably because of their ethnic origin, nationality (or statelessness) or race, age, disability, religion or belief (including the absence of belief), marital or civil partnership status, sexual orientation, pregnancy, gender reassignment, political belief

Indirect Discrimination occurs when a condition or requirement is applied equally to all groups of people but has a disproportionately adverse effect on one particular group.

Harassment is unwanted conduct related to 'protected characteristics' that has the purpose or effect of violating a member's dignity, or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. Harassment is also unwanted conduct of a sexual nature which has that same purpose or effect.

Victimisation occurs when a member is treated less favourably than others in the same circumstances because he or she has made a complaint or an allegation of discrimination, harassment or bullying or given information regarding such a complaint or allegation.
